
You have been assigned to convince President Woodrow Wilson to reject the notion of women's suffrage on a public scale. Use the following prompts to create a well-rounded, thoughtful, and persuasive argument. Make sure to include your sources.

1. First, select three outspoken anti-suffragists who will present your argument before the President. Explain who they are, their background and occupation, and why you have chosen them:

- 1.

- 2.

- 3.

2. Now, select three political cartoons or images that support/improve your argument. Copy/paste them here.

- Describe what is depicted in the image.
- How does it support the anti-suffrage movement?

3. Now, it is time to formalize your argument. Choose three major reasons that women should not have the right to vote and list them here:

Argument 1	Argument 2	Argument 3

5. How will you counter the pro-suffrage arguments that you listed above?
