Military Ceremony Policy
Updated May 1, 2022

“...my first wish would be that my Military family, and the whole Army, should consider themselves as a band of brothers...”
George Washington, October 21, 1798

As the home and final resting place of General Washington, Mount Vernon is often sought after as the preferred site for special military ceremonies, including re-enlistments, promotions, and retirements. While Mount Vernon’s mission is to preserve Washington’s iconic home and share his unparalleled legacy with the world, we will, whenever possible, allow men and women of the United States Armed Forces the special opportunity to hold brief military ceremonies on the estate. To provide a positive experience for all of Mount Vernon’s guests, we ask groups to observe and adhere to the following guidelines:

II. Availability is limited and subject to change. Ceremonies are scheduled on a first come, first served basis.

III. Groups will be escorted at all times by Mount Vernon staff. A designated staff member will greet the group near Mount Vernon’s main gate and escort the group onto the property once everyone has arrived. Free parking is available.
