REPRODUCTION CONDITIONS

1. Requests for permission to reproduce Content ("Content" means images, video and written material) must be made in writing and include its intended use, the publisher, date of publication and press run. For website usage, the web site address is required.
2. Reproduction fees are payable in advance, whether or not the Content is used. Please note that Content found in the Library and Archives collections may be reproduced at no charge.
3. Permission to reproduce Content must be obtained in advance and covers a one-time use, in one edition, one language, and in all related formats (printed and electronic). Additional language editions, subsequent editions and any related promotional use must be considered as separate requests and will require a new written application and possibly additional fees. Exclusive rights are not granted to any applicant.
4. Alterations: Still images must be reproduced unaltered and in their entirety unless approved in advance by the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association. The reproduction must not be cropped, bled off the page, or have anything superimposed on the image. If a detail is used, the word DETAIL must appear in the caption/credit line.
5. Credit: Content must be credited without abbreviation "Courtesy of Mount Vernon Ladies' Association" and must appear in immediate proximity to the Content or in the section devoted to image/video credits. If an image is owned by a photographer, "Photograph by (the name of the photographer)" will follow the Mount Vernon credit line. For Content reproduced from the George Washington Digital Encyclopedia, in addition to the Mount Vernon credit line, the author's name as listed in the Encyclopedia entry must be cited as written.
6. Permission for cover art for a book jacket or DVD will only be considered upon receipt of a cover design and written application for such use. An additional fee is required for cover use.
7. The Association reserves the right to deny permission to reproduce Content from its collection to any applicant whose product is not acceptable for any reason. Accompanying text may be subject to approval by the Association prior to printing.
8. Applicant shall not authorize use of Content to other parties nor shall the Content be placed in any electronic cataloging or electronic delivery service without written approval of the Association.
9. The Mount Vernon Ladies' Association make no warranties or representations and assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any claims against applicant or the Association by the creator, their agents, estates, or by any parties in connection with the reproductions of the Content in the collections of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association. The applicant agrees to indemnify the Association and hold it harmless against any and all such claims, including copyright infringement claims, royalty or fee demands and/or actions, including the costs thereof, arising as a result of the applicant's reproduction of the Content in the collections of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association. Any and all royalty payments or other requirements specified by the copyright owner of such a work is the responsibility of the applicant and must be paid or honored by the publisher or agent requesting reproduction permission.
10. Applicant will provide one (1) complimentary copy of any resulting product to the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association.
